

AIS

ABUSED IN SCOUTING

EISENBERG ROTHWEILER
PHILADELPHIA, PA

KOSNOFF LAW
SAN JUAN, PR

AVA LAW GROUP, INC.
SAN DIEGO, CA

MEDIA ADVISORY

August 2, 2019, Washington, D.C.

Contact: Julianna Evans
917-445-8701 (Phone)
julianna.evans@gmail.com (E-mail)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Abused in Scouting (AIS) Legal Team to Announce First Case Filed Against Boy Scouts of America (BSA) for Child Sex Abuse

(Washington, D.C.): The filing discloses names of over 300 alleged child sex abuse predators in the Boy Scouts of America from 48 states and the District of Columbia. AIS's announcement will also disclose shocking new revelations as to the actual number of predators hidden by the BSA for nearly a century.

What: Press conference by the legal team of Abused in Scouting to discuss revelations regarding hidden sex abuse predators in the Boy Scouts of America.

When: Tuesday, August 6, 2019; 10:00 AM ET

Can't join the press conference physically? We will be livestreaming on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/Abused-In-Scouting-344945289678961/>. We will be taking your questions in real time by texting 917-445-8701.

Who: The legal team of Abused in Scouting: Stewart Eisenberg, Tim Kosnoff, Josh Schwartz, and Andrew Van Arsdale.

Where: National Press Club Washington D.C., Zenger Room, 13th Floor
529 14th St. NW
Washington, D.C. 20045

SECURITY AND ACCESS INSTRUCTIONS ON PAGE 2

AIS

ABUSED IN SCOUTING

EISENBERG ROTHWEILER
PHILADELPHIA, PA

KOSNOFF LAW
SAN JUAN, PR

AVA LAW GROUP, INC.
SAN DIEGO, CA

Why: To raise awareness of Scouting sex abuse and advocate on behalf of Scouting abuse survivors, the legal team will:

- Discuss their first filing against the Boy Scouts of America for Child Sex Abuse.
- Disclose the names over 300 hidden predators in Scouting from 48 states and D.C.
- Hear from survivors and learn how the Child Victim's Act in many states will make it possible for all victims of sex abuse to come forward and seek justice.
- Discuss why the BSA has spent millions of dollars lobbying against the passage of Child Victim's Acts state by state.

The National Press Club is a secure facility; all attendees/staff must have a valid QR code to pass through security gates at the entrance of the Club to attend the event. To gain access to the 13th floor, please present the access code below on your mobile device at the turnstiles located on the 13th floor of the Press Club:

For more information contact Julianna Evans at 917-445-8701 or julianna.evans@gmail.com